

Music at The Lodge

Enjoy a relaxing evening in the park with free, live musical entertainment. Our concert series brings a variety of music that the whole family will enjoy. The concerts will be held indoors due to variable weather conditions. The lodge is located at 141 Remsen Road in Granger Township.

Wednesday, August 9 - Brian Henke - 7 to 8 p.m.

This month, Brian Henke will be performing at The Lodge at Allardale. His unique guitar style has been called everything from folk to new age to neo-classical to pastoral, or, as Brian likes to call it, a big stew pot of everything stirred up, simmered, and served to taste. Brian spends his spare time hiking through the woods, and these hikes provide the inspiration for his music. All ages are welcome. No registration required. Free.

Wednesday, September 13 - Upriver Music - 7 to 8 p.m.

This month, Upriver Music collects and performs traditional and original folk music in the Celtic and Appalachian traditions. Teresa White brings to the music a variety of instruments that include the Irish whistle, alto recorder, banjo, mandolin, guitars and vocal. Dan Moorefield is featured on guitars, piano, fiddle, and vocals. All ages are welcome. No registration required. Free.

Wednesday, October 11 - Box of Squirrels - 7 to 8 p.m.

Box of Squirrels will be performing acoustic eclectic folk music. The group is a unique blend of acoustic instruments and harmony vocals. So sit back and let members tell you their stories through their own interpretations of popular cover songs. This will definitely be a show to remember! All ages are welcome. No registration required. Free.

Wednesday, November 8 - Circle of Friends - 7 to 8 p.m.

Enjoy music from Circle of Friends, a group that loves to share positive energy and joy with its rock/folk-inspired music performed on acoustic guitar, stand-up bass, percussion, and keyboard. The group's original and cover songs weave together a tapestry of melodies that inspire and uplift one's spirit. Circle of Friends also celebrates our relationship with the natural world through songs and stories. All ages are welcome. No registration required. Free.
