

Nature Art Fest

Saturday, November 11
10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sunday, November 12
12 to 4 p.m.

Wolf Creek Environmental Center
6100 Ridge Road, Sharon Center

The 16th Annual Nature Art Fest, featuring unique items inspired by nature from professional artists, will be held at Wolf Creek Environmental Center. From paintings to stained glass, you'll find unique holiday gifts for everyone on your list. Bring the family and spend the day in one of the most beautiful parks in Medina County.

Bill Bachtel – hand-turned bowls and platters
Marita Bitans – digitally-enhanced nature photography
Leona Bowser and Cathy Everly – stained glass and glass mosaics
Annette Carruthers – nature-inspired polymer clay with mixed media gifts and jewelry
Joyce Colo – watercolor paintings and handmade cards
Cindy Craft – pen and ink watercolor paintings
Henry Edinger – acrylic bird and nature paintings on slate
Frank Geric – acrylic wildlife and landscape paintings
Mark Gifford – wood intarsia
Peggy Hegbar – watercolor paintings, handmade cards, and jewelry
Larry Hohman – hand-colored/illustrated children's books and nature prints
Darrell Kent – ink marker pointillism landscapes
Laura Kovach – copper work
Mary Krosse – hand-formed and painted-dough sculpture
Kristina Malcolm – handmade sterling silver jewelry
Lisa Merrick – pressed botanical pictures
Laurie Musser – wildlife image digital prints
Amy Jean Nichols – glass enamel and bead jewelry
Monika Rock – hand-carved and painted gourds
Mary Sandmann – unaltered nature photography
Cindy Shipp – naturally-dyed silk scarves and cotton items
John Spetz – hand-carved walking sticks and bamboo wind chimes
Kathie Steppenbacker – butterfly photography cards and prints
Barbara Tartir – watercolor paintings
Suki Warden – wheel thrown pottery
Mary Williams – felted scarves and wool-based art